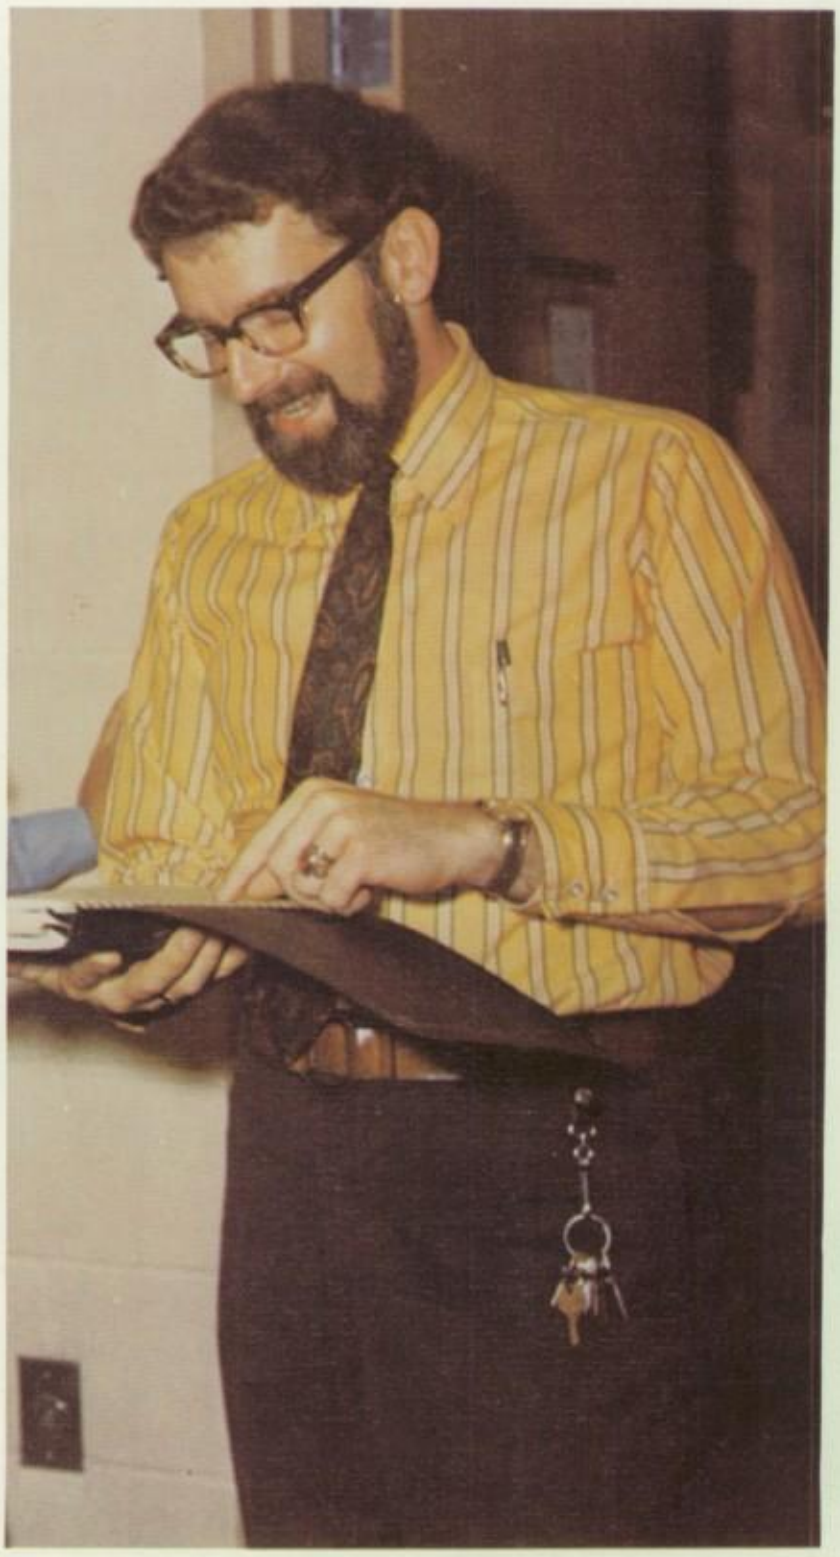
The Class of 1972 Presents the Seventh Annual CEDAR LOG.

Cedar Crest High School
East Evergreen Road
Lebanon, Pennsylvania 17042

dedication



The Class of 1972 is proud to dedicate the seventh edition of the CEDAR LOG to MR. JAMES H. GARRETT, JR., a man who with his qualities of endurance, enthusiasm, and understanding has taught and advised us throughout our years at CEDAR CREST.

administration

Each Cedar Crest senior class approaching the closing of the term seems to face unusual challenges from the world of employment, higher education and other life careers; changing values seem to create increasing difficulties in understanding and solving the problems of today's world.

High School traditions are established year by year; you, as the class of 1972, have contributed your share toward making Cedar Crest an institution that asks its students to deal with the problems of the day and make of them challenges and opportunities for service and concern for the community and in such action personal character and moral strength can be gained by each of you.

It is our genuine pleasure to wish to all of you success and to expect from all the finest of good living.

Dr. Eugene F. Stoudt
Superintendent

With the passing of each year, these pages of your 1972 Cedar Log will become increasingly important to you. In time, you will be showing this volume to your own children. It is my hope that the pages of this annual will bring only pleasant memories of your years at Cedar Crest, and that you will remember your school achievements with pride.

If your stay at Cedar Crest has prepared you to enjoy your future life to the fullest measure of happiness, then we feel we have accomplished our purpose.

Earl W. Boltz

As you leave the halls of Cedar Crest, I hope that many fond memories, worthwhile experiences, strong friendships, and sound concepts of life go with you. May the roles that each of you select in the drama of life be more easily attainable because you have been here.

My best wishes for the achievement of your individual goals and aspirations do indeed go with you.

"Ready . . . get set . . . hut-one . . . hut-two . . . ouch!" Although this year's football team did not notch a preponderance of victories, they did succeed in nearly breaking the back of the insurance company. The team consisted of five bad knees, two bad backs, two broken feet, one dislocated toe, three broken fingers, one dislocated finger, one separated shoulder, two "whiplash" necks, a few stitches here and there, and an assortment of other minor maladies. In fact, this year's team had everyone present and healthy for one whole practice.

All this may sound like an excuse. Well, maybe it is. It was one of those seasons (2 wins, 7 losses) that left everyone standing there helplessly asking themselves and each other that one big question.

"Why?"

There were great first halves, such as Lancaster Catholic and Governor Mifflin, and great comeback second halves, like Palmyra, but the Falcons just couldn't put it all together often enough.

. . . maybe next year.

"jeepers creepers!"

The 1971 soccer team played exciting soccer—sometimes. In fact they were so consistently inconsistent in their performances that it was impossible to predict the outcome of their games.

For instance, there were the Conrad Weiser battles that saw the Falcons drop the opener 4-1, and then turn the tables on the Scouts 3-2, the second time around.

The team record, 3-9-1, was a vast improvement over last year's. New uniforms helped spark more enthusiasm from Falcon booters and rooters.

bully for us

Scoring is the name of the game, someone once said. Sorry about that! This year's field hockey team just couldn't seem to put that little white ball in that little wire cage.

Still, the Falconettes featured one of the league's toughest defenses, salvaging an unprecedented series of ties even when the offense couldn't come across. Ably led by tri-captains Joan Herb, Carol Wengert, and Ruth Ann Carpenter, this hard-working group of girls compiled a respectable record. It could have been better. But it could have been a lot worse.

how the west was won

This season marked the last time that Cedar Crest participated in the Berks County League, and what a way to go! The Falcons waltzed off with the Western Division crown, capturing the first-half title and then edging out Governor Mifflin, 62-61, in the playoff.

The Falcons flew high all season, from the opening romp over Ephrata to a convincing conquest of crosstown rival Lebanon to the P.I.A.A. District 3 playoffs. The Cedar Crest cagers proceeded to the semifinals before losing, and so qualified for the state inter-district playoffs at the Palestra in Philadelphia where they lost to Wissahickon 63-59.

If Coach Wood can keep measuring up to this year's example, the next Central Pennsylvania basketball powerhouse might well be the Flyin' Falcons.

a stroke of fate

"Whistle, whistle—Stroke, stroke!"

"I am, I am."

"The only way to swim fast is to swim fast."

These comments were again heard by this year's swim team who pooled all their efforts to produce one of the most talented squads in Cedar Crest history.

Led by a second team, all state diver, Steve Wentzel, and Donny Corl, the team created a big splash which rippled throughout the Central Penn Swim League.

Lap after lap, these boys swam their hearts out for Coach Davis during meets and practices and emerged as a tough contender.

perils of helene

Winning can become a habit. That's the story with the Cedar Crest Girl's Basketball teams. Under the excellent tutoring of Coach Helene Hetrick, the girls were off to a flying start in their bid for a fourth consecutive league championship highlighted by a 69-10 victory over Lebanon Catholic.

Led by captain and scoring sensation Joan Herb, along with seniors Deb Kreiser and Gordana Klipa, this team also boasts sophomores Lee Gerdes, Marty Wengert, and Diane Whitman, along with juniors Rosanne Smith and Judy Stickler. With so many underclassmen in key positions, the Falcon dynasty is sure to be continued.

the unmatchables

"Ow! This stupid mat burns!"

"No you're not going to sit out, you dumb ox."

This year's wrestling team pinned its second season on the Cedar Crest annals even though they competed on a jayvee level.

Amid practices of take downs and nelsons, this team will undoubtedly ride to heights of "glory" in the near future.

Led by several hard working seniors and promising underclassmen, the squad will hold their own for Coach Gerald Ebersole in varsity competition next year if no reversals occur in events.

nine reasons for falcon fame

If ever a Cedar Crest team was regarded as a favorite for a championship, this year's baseball team was it. Unlimited potential mixed with fighting spirit lent an optimistic note to this year's outlook.

Led by a generous complement of returning starters, including Berks County Western Division All-Stars Phil Pritchett and Jeff Edwards, the Falcons were a tough ball club this season.

Also returning from last year's 12-4-1 squad were letterman "Punch" Gross, Steve Wolfe, Rich Beard, Dean Messinger, and junior Cliff Ainsworth. Ainsworth twirled the league's only no-hitter during the preceding season.

Things were looking-up at Cedar Crest (especially for those out-fielders chasing long fly balls) on the spring sports scene. This year's diamond duels were real gems.

off and running . . .

"Runners, take your mark . . . Get set . . . GO!"

"No, not around . . . . over the hurdles!"

Oh well, no matter what the team does this year, it is sure to be their best. This can only be exemplified by Coach Hibschman, who's always "moving right along."

Winners or losers, the Falcon trackmen always gain the respect of both fans and foes. Dedication and self-discipline are the keynotes of this grueling individual sport, and no one emerges from the program a loser.

from cedar crest with love

The Falcon netmen take to the court this year with a wealth of returning experience. Of the five singles players from last year's team, four are back to head the Falcon charge for a league crown.

Seniors Jim Brewer and Jim Kreider lead the list of lettermen, teaming up with juniors Rodney Miller and Tom Goodman to provide a solid basis for a powerful team.

All in all, it looks as if Coach Ernest Firestone has another winner on his hands.

Coach Firestone

all you need is love

Bouncing back for another smashing season (and having a ball doing it!) is the girl's tennis team, Cedar Crest's own "love-ly" group of femmes fatales.

Looking to kill competition this year are junior starters Sue Musheno and Claudia Ingraham, aided by senior Pat Bowman. Although the Falcons lose three starters via graduation, Coach Anne Heisler's know-how and a dedicated group of underclassmen are sure to continue in the winning tradition.

the golfer's prayer

The Pro is my shepherd
I shall not slice.
He maketh me to drive straight down Green Fairways;
He leadeth me safely across
still Water-Hazards,
He restoreth my Approach Shots,
He leadeth me in the paths of accuracy for my Game's sake.
Yea, though I chip through the Roughs in the shadows of Sand Traps,
I will fear no Bogies;
For his advice is with me in the presence of mine opponents,
He annointed my head with Confidence.
The Cup will not runneth over;
Surely Birdies and Eagles shall follow me in all of the Rounds of my life,
And I will score in the Low-Eighties-Forever.

The 1970 Cedar Crest Golf Team swung its way into a winning season last year with an 8-4 record. Struggling over sand traps, long putts, and not-so-green Greens, the Falcons managed to drive their way through the roughs of the Berks County League.

"Play the ball where it lies!" is a popular golf cliche. With the combined efforts of the CCHS golfers, both as individuals and as a team, they found themselves playing the ball at the top—among the winners.

through tears and triumphs

"Hey, all you Falcon fans . . . Hey, Cheryl, what's the next cheer? . . . Let's go Falcons . . . Quick comb your hair before the game starts . . . We love, we love the Falcons . . . Get off our guys, you big cows!

Enthusiasm and unsurpassable school spirit have become the Cedar Crest trademark. It is the job of these 27 dedicated and vivacious girls to promote it in any and every way possible, whether it be painting signs into the wee hours of the night or practicing toe-touches in front of the bathroom mirror at home. In victory or in defeat, they are always there — loyal, faithful and true.

new club makes a big splash!

A new organization this year, the Aquatics Club was formed mainly for the purpose of allowing students interested in any phase of swimming to participate in a special club.

Consisting of a number of versatile swimmers of the swim team, Synchronized Swim Club, and just all-around enthusiasts, the club has undertaken a number of projects such as making signs for the swim meets, providing timers, utilizing the pool for free swims, and helping set up the annual swim show in the spring.

There are about fifty girls participating in the synchronized portion of the club, and they attend weekly practices to perfect the grace and poise needed to produce their unique shows each year.

AQUATICS CLUB—Sitting: Joan Hackett, Mary Kelley, Donna Zollo, Cindy Harmuth, Diane Gruber, Claire Juppenlatz, Ann Brightbill, Judy Reist, Lori Emerich, Donna Achenbach, Marie Wildasin, Kathy Hernley. Kneeling: Sue Gundrum, Pat Pierce, Sheri Becker, Sandy Youtz, Sue Funk, Liz Sherk, Janell Evans, Doreen Dourte, Sharon Speck, Ellen Watson, Lynette Baeshore, Becky Hitz, Cindy Harpel, Jeanie Nissley. stargazers focus on the heavens

"And there you have the Gemini . . . and the Big Dipper . . . and, hey, knock it off you two!"

The Astronomy Club, in correlation with the Hi-Y, studies heavenly bodies. However, these heavenly bodies cannot be found in Playboy. This is the club that continues to produce starry-eyed idealists.

With Mr. Kenneth Zimmerman providing the leadership along with Mr. Herbert Levy, things are sure to keep looking up.

bowlers create a striking image

Some people think that taking a heavy ball with three holes in it and rolling it down an alley leaves something to be desired.

Though after they have tried it, they will admit that it is not only fun, but great for the waistline.

This club bowls every Monday after school. It is advised by Mr. William Dissinger and Mr. Kenneth Shirk.

'what can we say?'

"Lock the door, Carl, before Jessie comes in here and changes anything else . . . Oops! Ha, ha, we were only kidding, Jessie."

"I don't care if he can hear me! I'll say any . . . thing I want any . . . time I want!"

"What do you mean, insulting? The Tri-Hi-Y doesn't care!"

"Hey Perry, will you turn off that stinkin' music!"

The dedicated gazooks of the Cedar Log staff (dedicated to giving advisor James Lester an ulcer) have done it again, and, you, reader, are holding in your grubby little hands the end product of it all.

Hours of backbreaking labor with layout sheets, token appearances by the literary staff, missed deadlines, and the promptness of T.P. Studio all went together to make this the best Cedar Log of 1972.

CO-EDITORS—Jessie Greco, Bill Dodson.

Countering the filthy minds of some of the football players are Cedar Crest's "clean-minded" EKOS members. Among their ecological endeavors were a paper drive and stream surveys.

This new club on the Cedar Crest scene is designed to educate members on pollution problems. Advisors were Mr. George Carmichael and Mr. David Holt.

EKOS officers were Dave Calkins, president; Dean Barber, vice-president; Janet Klompus, secretary; and Cindy Harmuth, treasurer.

business leaders prepare for the future

What would we have done without the FBLA? For instance, Cedar Crest wouldn't have been represented in the regional peanut-crunch candy sale. Mmmmm, Bummer!

And who can forget the Christmas party that they sponsored for the handicapped children?

The members of this club were so enthused about Future Business that they pulled down the trophy for the largest attendance at the fall regional at Annville-Cleona.

With a president like Mary Kreider and an advisor like Mrs. Ruth McDonald, there is no business like Future Business.

teachers of tomorrow educate today

"Children, there will be no gum-chewing in this class. David, that means stop blowing bubbles in Barb's hair!"

The FTA was one small group that learned the trials and tribulations of one certain profession, by virtue of student-teaching in elementary and secondary classrooms. Mr. Alvin Light, the advisor, further exemplified the qualities necessary in an expert educator.

Wo, Wo, Wo, memories of Heidelberg are memories of this year's German Club, Der Vierte Reich.

The Club, the largest in Cedar Crest's history, flourishes under the competent leadership of the Sophomores. They began publication of Die Weise Rose, the German newspaper, which was written entirely in "Deutsch" exclusively for the cultural supremes—the Germans.

The highlight of the social life, or night, whichever you prefer, was the cultural exchange of the German, Spanish, Latin, and French Clubs at the infamous activity night.

knitting keeps them in stitches

Please do not rib the members of this year's knitting club. They have already taken more than their share of needling.

The girls in this club are definitely the "purls" of the school. They have a ball spinning their yarns at meetings.

Projects included Christmas stockings and an assortment of individual creations.

"Friends, Romans, countrymen . . . lend me your togas!"

This can be heard frequently in the Latin classes. They are doing a splendid job of studying Roman culture and Hercules under the direction of Mrs. Dorothy Price.

Consul honors are shared by Sue Wise and Bev Drum for Latin II, and Mike Williams and Joe Stanilla for Latin I.

The Varsity Club had a lot of good, clean fun this year. They went to a basketball game. They almost went to another basketball game.

They carried books for the book display. They gave away jackets to their members. They were advised by Mr. Paul Wood.

"Gee whiz, the varsity club had a lot of fun!"

effort plus

Harassed by exploding firecrackers, laboring under piles of unstamped passes, struggling to find books that have been out of print for three years, it is through the unceasing efforts of these dedicated people that the library functions as smoothly as it does (except for periods 3,4,5,6 and 7, Mondays, Wednesdays and Friday, when the library will be closed periods 1 and 2, Tuesdays and Thursdays, open for reference work only).

Seriously, many thanks are due to Mrs. Agnes Trautman and the library assistants for the fine job they do. And who knows, maybe someday Partridge's Book of Cliches will come in.

Preparing students for careers in medicine is the main function of this club. Various speakers throughout the year visited Cedar Crest and presented talks on numerous aspects of medicine.

The principal project this year was filling stockings for the Boost children. Officers of the club were Holly Krall, president; Pat Reist, vice president; Beulah Gettle, secretary; Pat Kline, treasurer. The club was competently advised by Mrs. Elinor Lynch.

society exemplifies high ideals

What can possibly be said about the National Honor Society? This group is dedicated, very dedicated to preserving the high ideals of leadership, scholarship, character, and service.

This year's achievements toward these vaunted goals included getting past the fan in the auditorium at initiation without getting their candles blown out, and having a beautiful coed football game with no football.

Some people would say that the National Honor Society did nothing all year. However, they did it better than the year before.

Seriously, this group, under the direction of Mr. David Shenk, has been improving steadily and continues to act in the best traditions of the society.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY—First row: Cathy Eberhart, Diane Deitzler, Carol Adams, Leslie Evans, Donald Fausnacht, William Dodson, president; Maryellen Hereda, vice-president; Mr. David Shenk, Bonnie Douple, secretary; Andy Layser, treasurer; Joan Herb, Jeff Edwards. organists perform with dedication

Among the most keyed-up organizations around the school is the Organ Society, a group of dedicated musical apprentices advised by Miss Ruth Killian.

Although they've hit their highs and lows, they've managed to proceed a-"chord"-ing to schedule striking another note of success on the Cedar Crest scene.

sp . . ir . . it . . . it's g-r-r-r-e-a-t

"Will you please clean your brushes and put the paint cans back on the shelves."

These familiar words have echoed many times throughout the halls of Cedar Crest and will no doubt continue to be heard in the future.

Painting signs, selling tootsie rolls, and "out-cheering" Lebanon High are just small examples of the super-motivation of over 700 loyal Falcon fans.

Enthusiasm and school spirit is what they promote and they do it better than anyone else.

Home basketball games just wouldn't have been the same without the Pep Band blowing their hearts out. Led by Darryl Cox on the trumpet, these guys really got it all together.

"Hey, Mr. Allmon, what should I do if I shimmy up the rope and it breaks when I get to the top?"

Many a 'splitting' headache have developed from 'faulty' tumbles and cartwheels, but the members of Gym Club always manage to pick themselves up and continue with a 'beaming' smile.

It is often remarked that the two figures lingering around the equipment room are 'dead ringers' for the club advisors Miss Helene Hetrick and Mr. Thomas Allmon.

completely in the dark

"You're taking that shot from the wrong angle! This shutter sticks, Mr. Miller. Aw! I forgot to turn the film ahead."

The Photography Club really has an outstanding photographic mind which captures the school's most colorful aspects and events during the school year.

Although this club is sometimes in the dark, they shutter through a picturesque schedule as they develop their hobby to perfection.

skilled artists get together

This year the Rembrandt Club participated in the Center of Lebanon Association Christmas mural contest. They painted "The Twelve Days of Christmas" on the fence at the former site of St. Mary's Catholic Church.

The club also made their annual spring trip to New York, and also viewed the Scholastic Art Exhibit at the William Penn Memorial Museum in Harrisburg.

The major projects this year were creating settings and stage scenery for the fall play and the spring musical.

Mrs. Paul Eberly advises the club.

sewing becomes a new activity

Sewing is a new activity that managed to keep the school in stitches. Don't let these girls spool you with their dartin' and bobbin' around.

It might have been little more than a "sew-sew" year were it not for the exuberance of club members in preparing for the Christmas boutique and providing costumes for the musical.

Advisors were Mrs. Paul Messersmith and Mrs. Neal Horst.

"Hey Mr. Rohrbach, since I'm a 30-23-35, what size long underwear should I buy?"

Due to lack of interest by Mother Nature, the Ski Club was unable to make $10 worth of appearances at the Heidelberg Country Club. With skis on feet and pole in hand, the members of the Ski Club spent many hours anticipating snow.

However, when Mother Nature was in a generous mood, the club was skillfully led by Collar Bone Joe, alias Mr. Gary Rohrbach.

Although the actors get all the hands, the stage crew is very important to a successful production. Their split second timing is almost perfect . . . "Not yet Scott, he's still singing."

Although working under the handicap of faulty equipment, the staging for assemblies, the fall play and the musical always seems to come off smoothly.

"The following report to the principal's office: Friti-pap, Friti-boyle, Friti-nine, Cha-sho, and Ira Shelling, excuse me, Irma Shilling, would you believe Irving Schmelling?"

"The inspirational reading is: Treat your friend as your enemy, and your enemy as your friend, unless your friend's enemy is yours, in which case the library will be closed periods 1,2,3 . . ."

'all the world's a stage'

"Lights . . . Camera . . . Action . . . Cut!"

"Okay, Mr. Shenk, we'll settle down."

The Drama Club activities for 1971-72 included a fall play, "If a Man Answers," a Christmas play, and a trip to New York.

The role of president was played by Maryellen Hereda, understudied by Deb Fishman. The characters of secretary and treasurer were taken by Cathy Eberhart and Kim Minnich, respectively.

Directed by Mr. Shenk.

"Sit on the chairs, not the tables, please . . . this meeting will not come to order!"

The student council achieved a notable Cedar Crest first this year, electing Joan Herb president. This marked the first time a female ever held the office. The runner-up, Bill Dodson, later captured the treasurer's job, while Jeff Edwards and Cindy Longenecker became vice-president and secretary, respectively.

In addition to electing each other officers, and demonstrating their knowledge of parliamentary procedure by vetoing this write-up three times, council members ran the school store and sponsored the well-received Free Fair concert and assembly.

Another highlight was the fine job done by Mr. Gary Rohrbach and Mr. Fred Shirk in their first year as advisors.

Missing from picture: Bill Dodson, treasurer; Cindy Lonenecker, secretary.

no news . . . is good news

"Cedar Crest Smokes, This Time in Talon . . . Now, wait a minute you guys, one Lebanon Daily News is enough. But, Mr. Lester, I thought the copy deadline was NEXT Wednesday! . . No, you can't put that in the Talon, either!"

Headlining Cedar Crest's literary efforts this year was the Talon staff. Leading the team that produced those mind-expanding 8-page editions was Editor-in Chief Kathy Krause.

anticipating a quest

The FJA is a new club on the CCHS scene. There are 21 members. The FJA is advised by Mr. James Lester, and co-sponsored by Mr. Ted Gress, a professional journalist.

The purpose of the club is to provide more manpower for the journalistic world. Possible activities include sponsoring the Quest magazine and conducting several student surveys.

what in the world is a botanical atrium?

Speaking of apple butter sales, the FFA had one this year.

Not to mention a poinsettia sale, a geranium sale, bologna-making, and designing and constructing the Cedar Crest Botanical Atrium.

All of these activities made them one of the busiest clubs in the school. But they still had time to muscle their way through county FFA basketball competition in search of a title.

Happiness is getting off a fast break without tripping over the hump in the floor of the Cornwall gym. Happiness is getting into the record hop after basketball games for free because you know the guy who's taking the money. Happiness is wreaking holy havoc in the streets of New York.

Happiness is apologizing to Mrs. Trautman. Happiness is having the County Youth Meeting in the basement of the Y interrupted by a female voice from the street yelling "Hey, Sherman!" Happiness is not having to bail out the president.

Happiness is a coed party with Tri-Hi-Y. Happiness is having a coed party with anyone. Happiness is being advised by Mr. Gary Rorhbach.

Happiness is the Cedar Crest Hi-Y.

year of achievement for band musicians

"The band builds men! The band builds men!"

With the reassuring words of the football team ringing in their ears and the August sun beating down on their heads, the Cedar Crest Marching Falcons stepped off into another year of musical achievement, following the posteriors of the band front down the streets of the region's mightiest metropolitan areas.

The band won compliments and applause wherever they appeared. Although stunned by the shattering news that the highly-rated Rexmont parade had been cancelled this year, the musicians retained their high morale through the school term.

The highlight of the Fall semester was the trip to Atlantic City for the Miss America Pageant Parade aided financially by (who else?) the Music Aides. The band was robbed of national television fame by a commercial message from the sponsor.

The band collaborated with the chorus to present the Christmas concert. In addition to their Spring concert, they also participated in a PMEA concert competition.

Worthy of individual mention was the astute baton-waving direction of Mr. Robert F. Rhine. Also, Rodney Miller captured a State Band cornet position.

BAND DIRECTOR: Mr. Robert F. Rhine.

"But Mrs. Yak, I can't pull my stomach in any more. Boy, I hope this parade is soon over, my feet are killing me . . ."

These 36 "healthy looking" girls twirl, march, and dance, come rain or shine. One of their best performances this year resulted in a superior rating at the Harrisburg parade. Such achievements make them the pride of Cedar Crest.

This widely assorted array of pretty faces and legs serves not only to enhance the appearance of the band, but also to motivate the football team during summer practices.

"Tweet, tweet, tweet, tweet, bumpity, bumpity, bump . . . OK now, keep that line straight!"

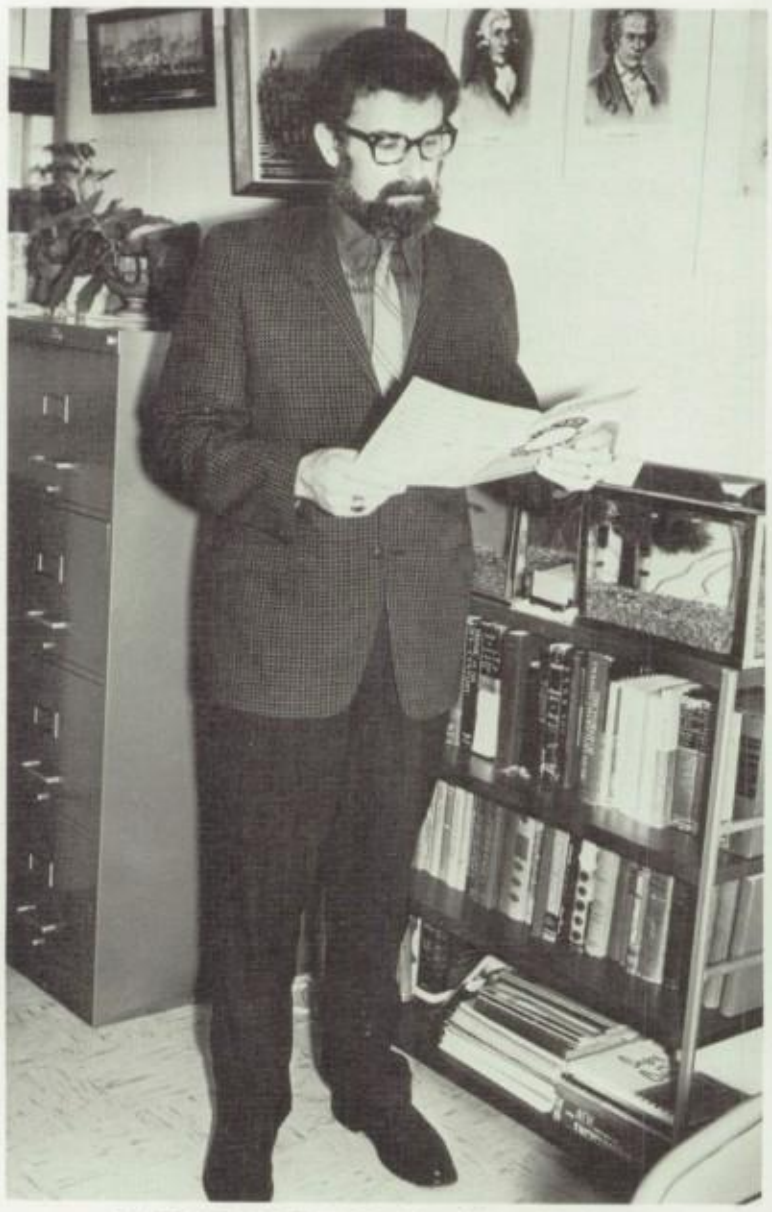
vocalists fill halls with tuneful melodies

"Hey Mr. Garrett, what's an enclosed trumpet? . . . Hey J. G., please don't pick on me."

You'll note that the chorus had a wide range of melodic morons including the ding-a-ling sisters (members of the attentive alto section), tuneful tenors, and boisterous basses. Occasionally Mr. Garrett had to get sharp with the sopranos.

The chorus performed at the annual Christmas and Spring concerts, and at various churches throughout the year.



CHORUS DIRECTOR: Mr. James H. Garrett.
